Sat Parkash Petitioner

V/s

State of Haryana and anr. ...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASJIT SINGH BEDI

Present: Mr. Puneet Pali, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Neeraj Poswal, AAG, Haryana.

JASJIT SINGH BEDI, J. (Oral)

This is a petition under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. for quashing of the impugned order dated 13.03.2020 (Annexure P-2) passed by the JMIC, Yamuna Nagar vide which the petitioner was declared proclaimed person in complaint bearing No.NIA---516 of 2019 dated 15.03.2019 under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act (Annexure P-1) titled as 'Amit Garg Vs. Sat Parkash' pending in the Court of the JMIC, Yamuna Nagar as well as quashing of FIR No.33 dated 09.02.2021 (Annexure P-3) under Section 174-A IPC registered at Police Station Sector 17, HUDA, Jagadhri, District Yamuna Nagar and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom.

2. The brief facts of the case are that a complaint under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act was instituted against the petitioner/accused at the instance of the complainant-Amit Garg. Pursuant to Trial Court to face trial, he was declared as a proclaimed person as per the order dated 13.03.2020 (Annexure P-2) pursuant to which an FIR No. 33 dated 09.02.2021 under Section 174-A at Police Station Sector-17, HUDA, Jagadhri District Yamuna Nagar (Annexure P-3) came to be registered against him.

3. Subsequently, the matter was compromised between the complainant and the petitioner/accused. The petitioner/accused paid the entire cheque amount i.e. Rs.60,000/- to the complainant in terms of the compromise dated 04.08.2021 (Annexure P-4). Thereafter, on 07.11.2022, the learned counsel for the complainant appeared before the Court of Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Jagadhri and suffered a statement that a compromise has been effected between the parties and he wished to withdraw the complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The matter was taken up in the National Lok Adalat on 12.11.2022. In view of the separate statement suffered by the learned counsel for the complainant on 07.11.2022, the complaint in question was dismissed as withdrawn vide order dated 12.11.2022. A copy of the order dated 12.11.2022 is taken on record as Mark 'A'. In view of the dismissal of the complaint under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act on the basis of the compromise, the present petition for quashing of the aforesaid impugned order dated 13.03.2020 (Annexure P-2), the FIR No. 33 dated 09.02.2021 under Section 174-A IPC registered at Police Station Sector 17, HUDA Jagadhri District Yamuna Nagar (Annexure P-3) and the consequential proceedings arising therefrom has been filed.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the present the aforementioned complaint. Thereafter, the matter was compromised between the parties and the petitioner- accused had made the payment of Rs.60,000/- in terms of the compromise dated 04.08.2021 (Annexure P-4) to the complainant. On 07.11.2022, the learned counsel for the complainant got recorded his statement before the Trial Court that since the matter has been compromised with the accused-petitioner, therefore, the complainant did not want to proceed further with the complaint and wanted to withdraw the same. Based on the said statement, the complaint was dismissed as withdrawn vide order dated 12.11.2022 (Mark 'A'). Once the complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act stood withdrawn, it would be an exercise in futility to permit the present proceedings to continue.

5. The learned State counsel has opposed the present petition and has submitted that the FIR has been correctly registered and cannot be quashed.

6. This Court has heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned State counsel and has perused the paper-book.

7. From the above-said facts and circumstances, it is apparent that the present FIR was registered in view of the fact that the petitioner was declared as a proclaimed person in the proceeding under Section 138 of the Act of 1881. The impugned complaint under Section 138 of the Act of 1881 itself has been withdrawn.

8. A co-ordinate Bench of this Court in CRM-M-43813-2018 titled as "Baldev Chand Bansal vs. State of Haryana and another", decided on 29.01.2019 has held as under:-

“Prayer in this petition is for quashing of FIR No.64 dated 15.02.2017 filed under Section 174-A of the Indian Penal Code registered at Police Station Sector-5, Panchkula and all other subsequent proceedings arising thereof as well as order dated 24.10.2016 passed by the trial Court vide which a direction was issued to register the aforesaid FIR.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the decisions rendered by this Court in “ Vikas Sharma vs. Gurpreet Singh Kohli and another (supra), 2017, (3) L.A.R.584, Microqual Techno Limited and others Vs. State of Haryana and another, 2015 (32) RCR (Crl.) 790 and “Rajneesh Khanna Vs. State of Haryana and another” 2017(3) L.A.R. 555 wherein in an identical circumstance, this Court has held that since the main petition filed under Section 138 of the Act stands withdrawn in view of an amicable settlement between the parties, therefore, continuation of proceedings under Section 174A of IPC shall be nothing but an abuse of the process of law.

In view of the same, I find merit in the present petition and accordingly, present petition is allowed and the impugned order dated 24.10.2016 passed by Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Panchkula as well as FIR No.64 dated 15.02.2017 registered under Section 174-A of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station Sector-5, Panchkula and all other subsequent proceedings arising thereof, are hereby quashed.”

9. A perusal of the above judgment would show that in a similar case where the FIR had been registered under Section 174-A IPC in view of declaring the petitioner therein as a proclaimed offender, a co-ordinate Bench after relying upon various judgments observed that once the main petition under Section 138 of the Act stands withdrawn in view of an amicable settlement between the parties, the continuation of proceedings under Section 174-A IPC is nothing but an abuse of the process of law. The said aspect was one of the main considerations for allowing the petition and setting aside the order declaring the petitioner therein as a proclaimed person as well as for quashing of the FIR under Section 174-A IPC.

10. Another co-ordinate Bench of this Court in a case titled as “Ashok Madan vs. State of Haryana and another” reported as 2020(4) RCR (Criminal) 87 has also held as under:-

“No doubt, the learned counsel for the respondent has vehemently argued that the offence under Section 174A I.P.C. is independent of the main case, therefore, merely because the main case has been dismissed for want of prosecution, the present petition cannot be allowed, however, keeping in view the fact that the present FIR was registered only on account of absence from the proceedings in the main case which had been subsequently regularised by the court while granting bail to the petitioner, the default stood condoned. In such circumstances, continuation of proceedings under Section 174A I.P.C. Shall be abuse of the process of court.

7. Accordingly, the petition is allowed. FIR No.446 dated 21.08.2017, registered under Section 174A I.P.C. At Police Station Kotwali, District Faridabad, as well as consequential proceedings shall stand quashed.”

11. A perusal of the relevant extract of the above judgment would observed that the continuation of proceedings under Section 174-A IPC shall be an abuse of the process of court. A similar view has been expressed by this Court in “Anil Kumar Versus Jitender Kumar and another, CRM-M-5878-2022 decided on 06.04.2022”, “Anil Kumar Versus Jitender Kumar and another, CRM-M-5755-2022 decided on 06.04.2022” and “Varinder Kumar @ Virender Kumar Versus State of Haryana and another, CRM-M-42551-2021 decided on 19.04.2022”.

12. In the present case the proceedings under Section 138 NI Act have culminated in a settlement with the withdrawal of the complaint under Section 138 NI Act.

13. In view of the above, the present petition is allowed and the impugned order dated 13.03.2020 (Annexure P-2) passed by the JMIC, Yamuna Nagar in complaint bearing No.NIA---516 of 2019 dated 15.03.2019 under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act (Annexure P-1) titled as ‘Amit Garg Vs. Sat Parkash’ pending in the Court of the JMIC, Yamuna Nagar, FIR No.33 dated 09.02.2021 (Annexure P-3) under Section 174-A IPC registered at Police Station Sector 17, HUDA, Jagadhri, District Yamuna Nagar and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom are hereby quashed qua the petitioner.
