

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

(261)

CWP-13143-2017 (O&M)

Date of Decision : September 05, 2023

Rakesh Kumar and another

.. Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana and another

.. Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. Amandeep Singh Talwar, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. Saurabh Mohunta, Deputy Advocate General, Haryana.

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the provisional result of the petitioners which is with the learned counsel for the respondents, may kindly be opened so as to ascertain whether the prayer made in the present petition survives or the same has been rendered academic.

Learned counsel for the respondents has opened the envelop which contains the provisional result of the petitioners. According to the said provisional result, the petitioners have not been able to secure the marks equivalent or more than the last candidate selected in the category in which the petitioners are competing.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the present petition has been rendered academic hence, the same may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further.

Ordered accordingly.

CM-6721-CWP-2018

As the main case has been disposed of, present application also stands disposed of.
