versus

State of Punjab and others

..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH BHARDWAJ

Present: Mr. Parampreet Singh Paul, Advocate for the petitioner.

RAJESH BHARDWAJ J. (ORAL)

Present petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a appropriate writ in the nature of certiorari or any other writ for quashing of the notice dated 24.05.2023 (Annexure P-3) whereby warrant of arrest of the petitioner has been issued by respondent No.3.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that the petitioner was sanctioned a loan of Rs.3,82,500/- in the year 1993. He submits that out of the total amount, Rs.60,000/- has already been paid by the petitioner. He further submits that even as per the policy of respondent No.2-Corporation, the loan can be settled by paying 1/4th of the principal amount. He submits that as the petitioner has already paid Rs.60,000/- and out of the remaining amount, he is ready to pay Rs.80,000/- within a period of two weeks from today.

Notice of motion.

On asking of the Court, Ms. Akshita Chauhan, DAG, Punjab appears and accepts notice on behalf of the respondents-State.

Keeping in view of the above, the present petition stands disposed of with a direction to the petitioner that if he pays Rs.80,000/- within a period of two weeks from today as undertaken by learned counsel for the petitioner before this Court, then the operation of order dated 24.05.2023 shall remain stayed enabling the petitioner to join the proceedings which will be decided in accordance with law. Needless to say if it is not done, this order would be of no avail to he petitioner and the notice dated 24.05.2023 shall come in force.
