

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh

CWP No. 13981 of 2023
Date of Decision: 19.7.2023

Rajdeep Singh

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and others

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SURESHWAR THAKUR HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KULDEEP TIWARI

Present: Mr. Sachin Jain, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Monika Jalota, Sr. DAG, Punjab.

SURESHWAR THAKUR, J. (ORAL)

1. The present petitioner becomes aggrieved from a declining order, being made by the Appellate Authority concerned, on his application for staying the verdict of eviction, as became made by the Collector concerned, on a petition constituted by the Gram Panchayat concerned, under Section 7 of the Punjab Village Common Lands (Regulation) Act, 1961.

2. Though normally the declining order, as, made on any interim application, thus seeking stay of the verdict of eviction, may ultimately bring, the ill event of the relief claimed in the statutory appeal, thereby becoming completely frustrated. Moreover, thus obviously for obviating the above sparking of an ill event, the declining order may also become amenable for being quashed and set aside. Nonetheless, in the face of the statutory appeal being listed today for arguments, therefore, the ends of justice would be met in case the Appellate Authority concerned, makes a lawful decision within a week from today hence on the relevant statutory appeal. If a decision adversarial to the present petitioner is made thereons, thus it is open for the petitioner to cast a writ petition thereagainst before this Court.

3. The petition stands disposed of.
