

215 IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CWP-13079-2018
Date of decision: 23.08.2023

Shamsher SinghPetitioner
V/s
Punjab State Power Corporation Limited and others ...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK MANCHANDA

Present: Mr. Nitin Meel, Advocate for
Mr. Kulbhushan Raheja, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Tushar Gera, Advocate for
Mr. Naveen S. Bhardwaj, Advocate for the respondents.

DEEPAK MANCHANDA J. (ORAL)

Present writ petition has been filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus, directing the respondent to release the retiral benefits i.e., full pension, gratuity, leave encashment and other retiral benefits to the petitioner along with interest @24% per annum from the date it become due till actual payment.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the present writ petition has been rendered infructuous.

In view of the above, the present writ petition is dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.

(DEEPAK MANCHANDA)
JUDGE

23.08.2023
Sapna

Whether speaking/reasoned	Yes/No
Whether reportable	Yes/No