Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

Present regular second appeal has been filed against the dismissal of the cross-objections, which were filed by the respondents-plaintiffs.

Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the present regular second appeal was filed as a precautionary measure though, the cross-objections filed by the respondents-plaintiffs have already been dismissed by the Courts below hence, the present regular appeal may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further with liberty to the appellants to raise the objections in case any appeal challenging the rejection of said cross-objections is preferred by the respondents-plaintiffs.

Ordered accordingly.
