Learned counsel for the petitioners at the outset submits that as far as his first prayer for issuance of directions to the official respondents is concerned, the same has been rendered infructuous as the challan already stands presented. He submits that he would not press the instant petition qua his second prayer wherein he had sought directions for registration of cross case against the respondents and he may thus be permitted to withdraw the instant petition with liberty to avail of alternative remedies as may be available to him under the provisions of law.
