1. Prayer in this petition is for quashing notice dated 23.03.2023 (Annexure P2) under Section 13(2) of Securitization and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002 (for short – 'SARFAESI Act') as well as notice dated 25.05.2023 (Annexure P3) under Section 13(4) of SARFAESI Act.

2. Learned counsel for the respondent submits that request for regularization of the petitioners' account has been rejected on 06.07.2023.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners is unable to deny that petitioners have an alternate efficacious remedy for redressal of the grievance/s raised in this writ petition. It is a settled position of law that as a general rule, there would be no interference by the High Court in exercise of jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India in the wake of availability of efficacious alternate remedy to the litigant, except in exceptional circumstances. Gainful reference in this regard can be made to the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Union Bank of India v. Satyawati Tandon and others, 2010(8) SCC 110; Varimadugu Obi Reddy v. B. Sreenivasulu and others, 2023(1) R.C.R.(Civil) 34; M/s South Indian bank Ltd. and others v. Naveen Mathew Philip and another, 2023(2) RCR (Civil) 771 and Division Bench judgment of this High Court in CWP No.10738 of 2022 (M/s Harinder Fabrics v. Shriram City Union Finance Ltd.) decided on 04.05.2023. Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of M/s South Indian Bank (supra) held as under:-

> "13. ..... We may, however, reiterate the settled position of law on the interference of the High Court invoking Article 226 of the Constitution of India in commercial matters, where an effective and efficacious alternative forum has been constituted through a statute.

In other words, courts are not expected to substitute themselves with the decision-making authority while finding fault with the process along with the reasons assigned. Such a writ is not expected to be issued to remedy all violations.

> 15. The object and reasons behind the Act 54of 2002 are very clear as observed by this Court in Mardia Chemicals Ltd. v. Union of India, (2004) 4 SCC 311. While it facilitates a faster and smoother mode of recovery sans any interference from the Court, it does provide a fair mechanism in the form of the Tribunal being manned by a legally trained mind. The Tribunal is clothed with a wide range or powers to set aside an illegal order and thereafter, grant consequential reliefs,

While doing so, we are conscious of the fact that the powers conferred under Article 226 of the Constitution of India are rather wide but are required to be exercised only in extraordinary circumstances in matters pertaining to proceedings and adjudicatory scheme qua a statute, more so in commercial matters involving a lender and a borrower, when the legislature has provided for a specific mechanism for appropriate redressal."

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners is unable to point out any extraordinary or exceptional circumstances which call for interference in exercise of jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

5. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances as above, this writ petition is dismissed with liberty to the petitioners to avail remedy/remedies available to them in accordance with law.
