IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-35705-2022
Date of Decision : 17.04.2023

Rekha Sharma

..... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKRAM AGGARWAL

Present : Mr. Ajay Kumar Advocate for
Mr. Rishu Mahajan, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Ravinder Singh, AAG, Punjab
for the respondent-State.

VIKRAM AGGARWAL, J (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition is for quashing of FIR No.75 dated 20.06.2019, registered under Section 174-A IPC, at Police Station Navi Bardari, Jalandhar alongwith all consequential proceedings, arising out of complaint bearing NACT No.2455 dated 21.04.2018 titled as Mansimran Singh vs. Rekha Sharma, filed under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (in short 'the Act').

2. Initially, the petitioner did not appear before the trial Court as a result of which she was declared a proclaimed person. Subsequently the present FIR was registered against her.

3. At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the complaint under Section 138 of the Act has been withdrawn vide order dated 11.11.2020 (Annexure P-3). It has been submitted that under the circumstances, the present FIR deserves to be quashed.

4. A complaint under Section 138 of the Act was filed by Mansimran Singh against Rekha Sharma. It was alleged that the cheque issued by the present petitioner in discharge of her liability had been dishonoured.

5. Admittedly, the petitioner did not initially appear before the trial Court as a result of which she was declared a proclaimed person and the present FIR under Section 174-A IPC was registered. A perusal of the record shows that the complaint under Section 138 of the Act has been withdrawn vide order dated 11.11.2020 (Annexure P-3).

6. The question would be as to whether on account of the acquittal of the petitioner in the complaint under Section 138 of the Act, the present FIR deserves to be quashed.

7. Going by the facts of the case, it is clear that even with the continuation of the FIR, no useful purpose will be served and the interest of justice demands that the same should be quashed. A Coordinate Bench of this Court also ceased of the same question relying upon the judgment in the case of Ashok Madan vs. State of Haryana and another 2020 (4) RCR (Criminal) 87 wherein it had been held that since the FIR under Section 174-A IPC had been registered only on account of absence from the proceedings in the main case which had been subsequently regularized by the Court while granting bail to the petitioner, the default stood condoned and, therefore, the FIR deserved to be quashed. A Coordinate Bench of this Court also took the same view in the case of Rahul Dureja and another vs. State of Punjab 2022 (1) R.C.R. (Criminal) 248 and held as under:-

“A perusal of the above judgment would show that where FIR has been registered under Section 174-A of the IPC in view of the order passed in the proceedings under Section 138 of the Act of 1881, while declaring the petitioners as proclaimed persons in the said proceedings, a coordinate Bench after relying upon various judgments, had observed that once the accused persons had appeared in the proceedings under Section 138 of the Act of 1881 and had been granted the concession of bail, then the effect of order declaring the accused person as proclaimed person would dissipate and the ground for registration of the FIR under Section 174-A of the IPC would no longer exist and thus, any proceeding under Section 174-A of the IPC would be an abuse of the process of the Court.”

8. A similar view has been taken by the Coordinate Benches of this Court in Vikas Sharma vs. Gurpreet Singh Kohli and another CRM-M-32465-2017, decided on 13.09.2017 and Deepak versus State of Haryana and another CRM-M-14623-2021, decided on 17.02.2022

9. This Court agrees with the view taken by the Coordinate Benches of this Court in the aforesaid judgments.

10. Learned counsel representing the State has not been able to dispute the aforesaid facts and the position of law as laid down in the aforesaid judgments.

In view of the above, the present petition is allowed and FIR

No.75 dated 20.06.2019, registered under Section 174-A IPC, at Police Station Navi Bardari, Jalandhar along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom are hereby quashed qua the petitioner.
