1. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the parties have since compromised the matter and a quashing petition has also been filed on the basis of the compromise. Learned counsel would further contend that in view of the compromise, he does not wish to press the present petition, at this stage. He further seeks liberty to revive the present petition in case the compromise does not fructify.

2. Dismissed as withdrawn at this stage with the liberty aforesaid.
Pending applications, if any, also stand disposed off.
