On 25.01.2023, the following was passed by the Co-ordinate

Bench of this Court :-

“The appeal is of the year 2008 and has not been argued till date despite umpteen number of adjournments, majority of them on behalf of the appellant and some by learned counsel for the respondent.

Today, adjournment slip has been attached by counsel for the respondent that he has to go out of station for domestic work., Although, no case is made out for adjournment, yet in the interest of justice, adjourned to 16.02.2023 subject to payment of costs of Rs. 5000/- to be shared equally between the appellant and the respondent to be deposited in the Punjab and Haryana High Court Lawyers Welfare Fund while making it clear that no further adjournment shall be granted and in case of arguments not being advanced on the next date, appropriate orders shall follow, in accordance with law.”

Today again, there is no representation on behalf of the appellant, which clearly shows that the appellant is not interested in pursuing the present appeal.

Dismissed for non-prosecution.
