1. In this revision petition, the Punjab State Industrial Development Corporation Limited assails the correctness of the order dated 12.07.2022, passed by the Civil Judge, Junior Division, Chandigarh, while allowing the application filed by the plaintiff for permitting him to get his signatures compared from the finger print and handwriting expert. The court has allowed the application permitting the plaintiff to get the information from the finger print and handwriting expert of comparing his signatures present on the Vakalatnama, plaint and the affidavit with the deed of guarantees executed by him on 16.11.1993, 12.11.1993 and 19.04.1995 in favour of the Punjab State Industrial Development Corporation Limited, while extending the loan.

2. Learned counsel representing the petitioner submits that the court should have directed the plaintiff to give his specimen signatures in the court as the plaintiff himself is disputing his signatures on the date of guarantee. She submits that the plaintiff while filing the suit may have changed his signatures.

3. Learned counsel representing the respondents jointly state that they have no objection to the aforesaid proposal of the learned counsel representing the petitioner. Consequently, the impugned order is modified with the consent of the learned counsel representing the parties. The trial court will direct the plaintiff to give his specimen signatures in the court and thereafter, the court shall proceed with the matter.

4. Disposed of.

5. All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
