.....Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANOOP CHITKARA

ANOOP CHITKARA J. (ORAL)

Fearing for life and liberty at the hands of the official respondents, the petitioner, invoking the fundamental right of life guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, has come up before this Court seeking protection through the State.

2. Notices served upon the official respondents through the State's counsel. Given the nature of the order that this Court proposes to pass, no response of official respondents is required.

3. State counsel submits that the husband of the petitioner is an accused in two cases out of which one is under NDPS and other is under 307 IPC and the police is raiding to nab him and only inquire about his whereabouts from her and there is nothing to be afraid from the police officials.

4. As such, nothing survives in the present petition and the same is disposed of. Liberty reserved to the petitioner to approach this Court again in case need so arises. All pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
