AMARJOT BHATTI, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner – State of Haryana through Collector, District Mahendergarh at Narnaul and others filed civil revision against impugned order dated 02.05.2022, Annexure P-4, and another order dated 25.07.2022, Ann.P-9 vide which JDs have been directed to comply with the judgment and decree dated 18.07.2016 passed by Civil Judge (Junior Division), Narnaul.

2. Learned State counsel pointed out that the department has already made the entire payment and now he has also placed on record the detail of calculation by way of Annexures R-1 to R-4 in CM-20274-C-II-2023. It is further pointed out that as per the calculation, the department has already deposited a sum of Rs.7,50,167/- in favour of Mahesh Chand Gupta since deceased now represented through his legal heirs.

3. On the other hand, learned counsel for the respondent claimed that they have not received any such payment from the department. During the course of arguments, it is not disputed that there is a judgment and decree dated 18.07.2016 in favour of Mahesh Chand Gupta which is to be executed by the Executing Court. Ultimately it is to be seen by the executing Court whether the judgment and decree in favour of Mahesh Chand Gupta has been executed in letter and spirit. In case the payment has been deposited by the petitioners/JDs then it is their duty to place on record the said relevant document before the Executing Court and it is for the Executing Court to decide whether the decree is fully executed or not. Once the application along with the detail of calculation is filed by the department before the Executing Court, the legal heirs of decree holder will also get an opportunity to file their objection, if any and the execution will be decided on merits.

4. With this observation, the present petitioners/JDs are directed to approach the Executing Court with their detailed calculation regarding satisfaction of aforesaid judgment and decree within a period of 2 weeks.

5. The Civil Revision along with pending applications are disposed of with the aforesaid direction.
