ARUN PALLI, J. (Oral):

On 03.02.2022, this Court had passed the following order:-

“This case has been taken up through Video Conferencing via Webex facility in the light of Pandemic Covid-19 situation and as per instructions.

Mr. Sahil Gupta, learned counsel representing respondent(s)-Haryana State Agricultural Marketing Board, asserts that during the pendency of the writ petition, a settlement has been arrived at between the parties. He seeks a short accommodation to place on record relevant material to substantiate his assertion.

List on 18.05.2022.

A copy of this order be placed on other connected matters.”

Learned counsel for the respondents-Board submits that pursuant to the final settlement scheme dated 30.08.2019 (Annexure P-7), the petitioner has since deposited the entire amount due, and thus, nothing substantive survives in this petition and the same be disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that Mr. Rohit Ahuja, who filed the petition has since joined the Office of Advocate General. He does not have any instructions whether the petitioner has indeed deposited the said amount.

Be that as it may, the petition is disposed of as infructuous in terms of the statement made by learned counsel for the respondents-Board. However, if any dispute, cause of action or interest still survives the petitioner shall be at liberty to move an appropriate application for restoration of the petition and its decision on merits.
