CR-3447-2022 and CR-3455-2022

Learned counsel for the petitioners argues that petitioner No.1- Company filed an appeal challenging the judgment and decree dated 09.08.2018 passed by the trial Court in Civil Suit No.204 of 2013 titled Punjab State Power Corporation Limited vs. M/s Krishana Alloys Private Limited and others but the said appeal has not been heard on merits on the ground that the Court fee required to be attached along with the appeal, has not been attached.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that an application was moved by appellant-petitioner No.1 to file the appeal as a pauper which application has been dismissed by the lower Appellate Court vide impugned order dated 14.07.2022 holding that though the properties which are in the name of appellant-petitioner No.1-Company have been mortgaged but as petitioner No.1-Company is still the owner of the said property, the Court fee was required to be affixed however, once the sold properties are not in possession of the appellant No.1-Company and there is no other property from which the Court fee can be generated, the lower Appellate Court was liable to allow the application of appellant No.1 to file the present appeal as a pauper.

The respondent has appeared and submits that apart from the company, there are two other appellants who have filed the appeal in their personal capacity and they have not disclosed their means financial capacity to state that they do not have money to deposit the Court fee, which fact has also not been considered by the lower Appellate Court while passing the order dated 14.07.2022.

Learned counsel for the respondents further submits that even qua petitioner No.1, the fact that all the properties are mortgaged and no property is with appellant No.1, also needs to be ascertained on the basis of the evidences which will come on record.

Keeping in view the above mentioned facts, as both the parties are raising objections to the order dated 14.07.2022 passed by the Lower Appellate Court, the said order is set aside with liberty to the lower Appellate Court to pass a fresh order on the basis of the evidence, which will come on record as to whether, the appellants can be allowed to file the present appeal as a pauper or not.

The separate examination be done qua the case of each of the appellant qua the properties which they have before passing of the fresh
