This petition is filed seeking quashing of order dated 30.5.2017 whereby the renewal of arms licence of the petitioner was suspended.

Learned State Counsel on instructions from ASI Kabal Singh, P.S. Phillaur submits that the renewal of the licence has been recommended and matter is pending before the District Magistrate concerned. He further submits that application for renewal of the arms licence would be decided in accordance with law within six weeks from today.

In view of the above, the petition is disposed of.

Needless to say that in case petitioner is aggrieved of decision on the renewal application, he would be at liberty to avail remedies in accordance with law.

Since the main case has been decided, pending application(s), if any, is rendered infructuous.
