VINOD S. BHARDWAJ, J. (ORAL)

The instant writ petition has been filed for seeking quashing of the proceedings initiated by the Deputy Commissioner, Moga, on the application made by the private respondents.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner contends that he has instructions to state that the matter has been amicably resolved amongst the parties and that the present petition has been rendered infructuous.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondents No.5 to 7, however, submits that there is no amicable resolution of the matter but he has no objection to the present petition being disposed of as having been rendered infructuous on the statement of the learned counsel for the petitioner without prejudice to the rights of the respondents.

The present petition is accordingly disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
