SURESHWAR THAKUR, J. (Oral)

1. Since the learned State counsel submits on instructions given to him, by the Competent Authorities concerned, that the orders impugned before this Court, stand completely executed, inasmuch as, the structures raised on the phirni land have been completely demolished. Therefore, the present Civil Writ Petition does not survive, as, the same for the above reason(s) becomes rendered infructuous.
2. Dismissed for becoming rendered infructuous.
3. However, liberty reserved to the petitioner to institute a suit for damages before the Civil Court or avail any other remedies available under law.
4. Since the main case itself has been decided, hence all the pending application(s), if any, also stand(s) disposed of.
