The petitioner incarcerated in the FIR captioned above, has come up before this Court under Section 439 CrPC seeking three weeks interim bail for medical care of his wife.

2. State counsel has strenuously opposed the present petition for interim bail on the ground that the petitioner is a habitual offender and six other FIRs are still pending against him.

3. After arguing for considerable time, counsel for the petitioner wants to withdraw the present petition with liberty to file fresh petition with better particulars and seeks exemption from filing fresh power of attorney.

4. Given above, the present petition stands disposed of having been withdrawn with liberty aforesaid. It is clarified that if the petitioner files a fresh petition on medical grounds of his wife then he shall mention all his adult siblings as well as his wife along status of parents and shall also annex medical record. Since petitioner -Pardeep Kumar has already given power of attorney to his counsel in this petition, as such, Registry shall not insist to file fresh power of attorney in the fresh petition, if so filed. All pending miscellaneous applications, if any, stand disposed of.
