CRM-M-40820-2023 (O&M)

Date of decision: 06.10.2023

Parveen Kumar alias Parveen Singh

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMAN CHAUDHARY

Present : Mr. G.S. Nahel, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. Manipal Singh Atwal, DAG Punjab

Mr. Pradeep Virk, Advocate for the complainant

AMAN CHAUDHARY. J.

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. is for the grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.3 dated 09.01.2018, registered under Sections 307, 325, 326, 506 and 34 IPC, at Police Station Khanauri, District Sangrur.

2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner is in custody for about 10 months. During the course of investigation, the case was found to be false and a cancellation report was presented before the Court concerned but in an application filed under Section 190 Cr.P.C., the petitioner was summoned vide order dated 04.10.2021. Co-accused Lehri Singh has been granted regular bail by this Court vide order dated 13.09.2023. The complainant-injured has been examined, out of a total of 25 prosecution witnesses. The petitioner is involved in 1 more case, however, is on bail. Reliance is placed on the judgment of Hon'ble The Supreme Court in Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. The custody certificate dated 04.10.2023 has been filed by learned State counsel. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 9 months and 19 days.

4. Learned State counsel assisted by learned counsel for the complainant oppose the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations against the petitioner of having inflicted injury to the complainant with a khapra blow over his head, which led to an injury of the right eye as well and the same has been declared dangerous to life. They are however unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case, co-accused having been granted bail, complainant stands examined and the petitioner is on bail in another case.

5. Heard.

6. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court etc."

7. In view of the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 9 months and 19 days; not involved in any other case; co-accused has been enlarged on bail; out of a total of PWs, only injured-complainant has been examined so far; the trial is likely to take a considerable time, thus his further incarceration would not serve any useful purpose, the present petition for grant of regular bail deserves to be allowed.

8. As a result, the present petition is allowed. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to his furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned and subject to his not being required in any other case. The petitioner shall abide by the following conditions:-

- (i) The petitioner will not tamper with the evidence during the trial.
- (ii) The petitioner will not pressurize/ intimidate the prosecution witnesses.
- (iii) The petitioner will appear before the trial Court on each and every date fixed, unless is exempted by a specific order of Court.
- (iv) The petitioner shall not commit an offence similar to the offence of which, he is an accused, or for commission of which he is suspected of.
- (v) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly coerce, induce, threaten or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/ her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence in any manner.
- (vi) The petitioner shall not in any manner misuse his liberty.
- (vii) The petitioner shall furnish his address and mobile number to the Trial Court forthwith and shall not change the same till the conclusion of the trial and in case for any reason, the petitioner seeks to change any of the aforesaid, the same shall be done only with prior intimation to the learned Trial Court, stating the reason for the same.
- (viii) The petitioner shall not leave the country without prior permission of the trial Court.
- (ix) The trial Court/Duty Magistrate may impose any other condition, as deemed appropriate while releasing the petitioner.

9. It is made abundantly clear that in case there is any breach of the aforesaid conditions, the State shall be at liberty to seek cancellation of bail as granted to the petitioner by this order.

10. In view of the above, it is clarified that the observations made herein are limited for the purpose of present proceedings and would not be construed as an opinion on the merits of the case and the trial would proceed independently of the aforesaid observations.
