Learned counsel for the claimants stated that no reply had been received by him to the registered letter, which he sent to the claimants and was received by them on March 13, 2023. He also stated that he had called the claimants on telephone also but got no response from them.

Notices were sent to the claimants earlier for 26.02.2019 for personal service, which were received back with the report that appellants 1 to 3 were not residing at the given address.

In view of the above, no purpose would be served to keep the appeal pending. Let the appeal be consigned to record with liberty to the appellants to get it revived, if need be.
