2. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C., for grant of regular bail in case FIR No. 173 dated 02.07.2022 registered under Section 22 of the NDPS Act at Police Station Phillaur, District Jalandhar (Rural).

3. According to the prosecution story, on 02.07.2022, the petitioner along with his co-accused was apprehended by the police with conscious possession of 190 bottles of COCREX Cough Syrup 100 ml each, without any permit of licence.

4. Learned counsel, inter alia, contends that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. The petitioner cannot be attributed to the conscious possession of alleged contraband. The moot question qua conscious possession of alleged contraband with the petitioner shall be determined by the trial Court during the course of trial. There is violation of mandatory provisions of law as laid down under Section 42 of the NDPS Act. Petitioner is not involved in any other case. He is in custody since 02.07.2022. The trial is likely to take long time. No useful purpose will be served by further detention of the petitioner in custody. Thus, it is prayed that the petitioner may be released on regular bail.

5. On the other hand learned State counsel vehemently opposed the submissions of learned counsel for the petitioner. However, he fairly conceded the fact that the petitioner is not involved in any other case.

6. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, period of custody and the fact that petitioner is not involved in any other case, but without commenting anything on merits of the case, the present petition is allowed.
