Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that despite notice of motion by this Court, the investigation done by the police in the present case is far from satisfaction as the relevant material, which could prove the guilt of the accused, have been let off while submitting the challan. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that as the challan is pending consideration before the trial court, the present petition may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further with liberty to the petitioner to raise all the objections before the trial court and bring the relevant material before the trial court to seek further investigation so that all the guilty people are brought before the court to undergo the trial.

Ordered accordingly.
