On their doing so, the learned Duty Magistrate/Illaq Magistrate/trial Court shall record their statements and furnish its report to this Court by the next date of hearing on the following aspects:-

Needless to say that in case for any reason the statements are not recorded on the aforesaid date, the learned Duty Magistrate/Illaq Magistrate/trial Court shall be at liberty to call the parties on any other date but not later than a week thereafter. ”

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report from Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Phul dated 27.10.2023 has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“ 1. In view of the statements got recorded by both the parties and ASI Gurdev Singh No.691/BTI, the present FIR was registered against accused/petitioner Jaspal Singh S/o Sh. Mansa and accused Kamaljit Kaur Chahal D/o Jaspal Singh R/o Ward No.7, Bharat Nagar, Mansa now residing at 7 River, Heights Drive, Brampton, Ontario L6P 2M9, Canada and except them, there is no other accused in this case.

3. It is most respectfully submitted that as per the statements of petitioner/accused and respondent no.2/complainant, the undersigned is satisfied that the compromise effected between them seems to be genuine, voluntary, which is not the result of coercion, pressure or undue influence.

4. In view of the statement of ASI Gurdev Singh No.691/BTI, the accused of this case are not involved in any other case.

5. It is humbly submitted that as per the statement of ASI Gurdev Singh No.691/BTI, investigating officer of this case, except complainant Sandeep Singh Sidhu, there is no other victim/complainant in this case.”

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the dispute arose out of matrimonial discord which also now stands laid to rest after the marriage got annulled by way of decree passed in a joint petition filed under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act.

5. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

6. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise.

7. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

8. This Court and Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to quash proceedings in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, State of Madhya Pradesh vs.

Laxmi Narayan and others (2019) 5 SCC 688, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.

(g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

9. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) The present matter does not fall within the exceptions as carved out in Laxmi Narayan's case (supra) i.e. heinous offence.
- (ii) The offences alleged are of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

10. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.73 dated 02.06.2022, registered for offences punishable under Sections 420/120-B IPC, at Police Station City Rampura District Bathinda and all proceedings arising therefrom, are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
