AUGUSTINE GEORGE MASIH, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for respondent No.1 informs the Court that the present appeal has been rendered infructuous as it was filed against an interim order passed by the Commercial Court, Ambala. With the trial having been concluded and the final order passed by the Commercial Court, the present appeal would not survive. It has also been stated that the appeals against the said order have also been preferred by the parties, which are pending before this Court.

In the light of the statement made by the learned counsel for the respondents, the present appeal is disposed of as infructuous with liberty to the appellant to move an appropriate application in case the statement as given by the counsel for the respondent is incorrect.
