Rajesh Lamba, Advocate for the appellants and Mr. Padam Singh son of Hari and Bidan, widow of Hari (LRs of Hari) who are present in the Court have been identified by Mr. M.S. Tewatia, Advocate for the respondents.

Learned counsel appearing for the appellants states that after passing of the impugned judgment and decree by the trial Court as well as the First Appellate Court the parties have entered into an amicable settlement inasmuch as the appellants have agreed to purchase the suit property from respondents, who are ready to do so and the formal sale deed would be executed within a few days from today. Learned counsel for the respondents concedes this fact stating that in view of the settlement he has no objection if the impugned judgment and decree passed by District Judge, Palwal in Civil Appeal No. RBT/RCA-127 of 2012 titled 'Hari versus Ranveer and others' decided on 9.10.2013 is set aside.

Under the circumstances, in view of the settlement between the parties and submissions made by learned counsel for the parties the judgment and decree passed by District Judge, Palwal in Civil Appeal No. RBT/RCA-127 of 2012 titled 'Hari versus Ranveer and others' decided on 9.10.2013 vide which suit filed by Hari for grant of permanent injunction against defendants Ranveer and others was decreed setting aside the judgment and decree passed by the trial Court dismissing the appeal are hereby set aside. Resultantly the suit for grant of permanent injunction so filed by the plaintiff against defendants stands dismissed.

It being so, the present appeal has become infructuous and is disposed of accordingly.
