1. The instant petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking issuance of a writ in the nature of Habeas Corpus directing the official respondents to produce the alleged detainee, i.e. wife of the petitioner, who is stated to be in illegally custody of the private respondents.

2. While drawing the attention of this Court to the report submitted by learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Kurukshetra, which was taken on record on the last date of hearing, learned State counsel has submitted that the alleged detainee had already made statement to the effect that she was not illegally detained by her parents and was not willing to go with the petitioner.

3. Case called, however nobody has entered appearance on behalf of the petitioner, which was the situation even on the last date of hearing as well.

4. In view of the report received from learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Kurukshetra, nothing survives in the instant petition and the same stands disposed of.
