CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIVEK PURI

Present: Mr. Ashok K. Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Preeti Singh, Advocate for the respondents.

VIVEK PURI, J. (ORAL)

1. Petitioner has assailed the judgment dated 10.12.2015 passed by the Court of District Judge (Family Court), Bhiwani vide which the maintenance @ Rs.2000/- and Rs. 1,000/- per month has been awarded in favour of respondent Nos.1 and 2 respectively.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that in terms of order dated 06.07.2022, the matter was referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court to explore the possibility of amicable settlement. An amicable settlement has been effected between the parties. As per the settlement, a sum of Rs.2,50,000/- has been paid by the petitioner to the respondents on account of full and final settlement of the claim for alimony. It was also stated that the respondents shall have no objection in the event, the present revision petition is allowed in view of the amicable settlement. On 07.11.2022, the draft in the sum of Rs.2.50 lacs was handed over to respondent No.1 and who had acknowledged the fact of having received the same.

3. The learned counsel for the respondents submit that the matter may be disposed of in terms of amicable settlement having been effected between the parties.

CRR(F)-96-2016(O&M)

-2-

4. The respondents have received the permanent alimony in terms of amicable settlement having been effected between the parties. It was specifically and categorically mentioned by respondent No.1 in the settlement that she will have no objection if this petition is allowed. This aspect of amicable settlement has been reflected in Para 6 (e) of Settlement/agreement. An amount of Rs.2,50,000/- has been received by the respondents in full and final settlement of the claim for permanent alimony. In view of the amicable settlement, the impugned judgment dated 10.12.2015 is set aside and revision petition is accordingly accepted.
