G.S. Sandhawalia, J. (Oral)

Challenge in the present writ petition filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India has been made to the securitization proceedings.

2. As per office report, notice to respondents could not be issued as process fee has not been filed. There is an interim order in favour of the petitioner operating from 14.11.2022. The said fact was also noticed on 19.04.2023 when counsel was not present and the proceedings were adjourned for today. Even today none has appeared on behalf of the petitioner.

3. Resultantly, the present writ petition is dismissed for want of prosecution. All interim orders stand vacated.
