AMARJOT BHATTI, J. (Oral)

On the previous date, learned counsel for the appellants pleaded no instructions on behalf of the appellants. Notice was issued to the appellants, which received back unserved, however, affixation was made. Today, nobody has turned up on behalf of the appellants. The conduct of appellants indicates that they are not interested to pursue the present Regular Second Appeal.

In view of these facts, the present Regular Second Appeal stands dismissed for want of prosecution.

Pending application(s), if any, also stands disposed of.
