| 44      | 22.01.2022 | Kurukshetra University, District Kurukshetra | 406, 420, 506 IPC |

The present petition has been filed under Section 439 (2) Cr.P.C read with Section 482 Cr.P.C for cancellation of bail as granted to respondent No. 2 in the above captioned FIR.

2. Counsel for the petitioner submits that the balance sale consideration was only Rs. 1,50,000/- and now in compliance of the previous order, he has filed an affidavit explaining and conceding that there are not going to take any adverse action against respondent No.2-accused because of the registration of sale deed in their favour and they will withdraw their civil suit in terms of the compromise.

3.               Given the now categorically stand of the petitioner and the affidavit, which is filed today, respondent No.2-accused is directed to comply with the previous orders as well as in consonance with the affidavit filed by the petitioner on or before 31.08.2023. It is clarified that if the order is not complied with, it shall be permissible for the petitioner to file fresh application for cancellation of bail and on this ground alone, the bail shall be cancelled.

4.               This Court requests the counsel appearing on behalf of respondent No.2-accused to communicate date of registration of sale and his availability to counsel appearing for the petitioner. In case of any confusion, counsel for the parties are requested to speak to each other and to find out a working solution. For any other small issues, this Court requests the counsel appearing for the petitioner as well as counsel for respondent No.2-accused to sit with their respective clients and also interact with each other and find out solution if there is any issue.

5.               Given above, the present petition stands disposed of with the obovesaid observations. All pending miscellaneous applications, if any, stand disposed of.
