

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana, at Chandigarh

Civil Writ Petition No. 26545 of 2022

Date of Decision: 13.01.2023

Nisha

... Petitioner(s)

Versus

The Secretary, Subordinate Services Selection Board, Punjab

... Respondent(s)

CORAM: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Anil Kshetarpal.

Present: Mr. Rajeshwar Singh, Advocate for the petitioner(s).

Mr. Inderpreet Singh Kang, Assistant Advocate General,
Punjab, for the respondent.

Anil Kshetarpal, J.

1. The petitioner prays for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus to direct the respondents to re-conduct the petitioner's examination for the selection to the post of Supervisor. The learned counsel representing the State of Punjab admits that this is still an ongoing process. It is the case of the petitioner that since there was misprint in the booklet of Set-B, therefore, she could not attempt the paper properly. She also made a request to the Invigilator, however, her request was not accepted. It is also claimed that on account of an incomplete question paper, she lost her precious examination time.

2. The facts, as noticed above, are not disputed by the learned counsel representing the respondent. The booklet of Set B has been produced. It is evident that Part-I of the question paper as handed over to the petitioner is not complete.

3. Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, the writ petition is allowed.

Let the respondent re-conduct the petitioner’s examination for the post of Supervisor within a period of one month, positively, from today.
