5. At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that co-accused Harpreet Singh @ Amit Judo and Nikhil @ Bholu have already been allowed bail by this Court by way of different orders. It is further contended that trial is likely to take long time as even the charges have not been framed so far.

6. Learned State counsel could not refute the aforesaid contentions that case of the petitioner is similar to that of co-accused Harpreet Singh @ Amit Judo and Nikhil @ Bholu who have already been allowed bail by this Court. It is also conceded by learned State counsel that even the charges have not been framed so far and as many as 21 witnesses have been cited in the challan.

7. As per the custody certificate placed on record by learned State counsel, petitioner is in custody for the last 01 year 05 months and 28 days though involved in other cases also.

8. Having regard to the above facts and circumstances, when co-accused have already been allowed bail, so on the basis of parity and also considering the fact that trial may take long time to conclude, but without commenting anything further on the merits of the case, this petition is allowed and petitioner is admitted to bail on his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the Learned Trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, on usual terms and conditions.
