Mr. Vivek Singla, Advocate,
for respondent no.2.

KULDEEP TIWARI. J.(Oral)

Through the instant petition challenge is thrown to the order dated 21.09.2023, passed by the trial Court, whereby the application dated 09.08.2023, filed on behalf of the petitioner (accused no.2) to travel abroad was disposed of and she was allowed to travel abroad for a period of two months, i.e. till 21.11.2023 on the following conditions:-

- a) she shall furnish her address during her stay abroad,
- b) she shall not seek extension of her stay abroad on any other ground including medical grounds,
- c) she shall appear in the Court on the next date of hearing and
- d) that the applicant shall not visit any other country except Canada during this period.

2. Though the efforts were made to challenge the legality of the order passed by learned trial Court, however, learned counsel for the petitioner failed to find out any infirmity in the impugned order.

He finally submits that due to pendency of the instant petition the petitioner even did not avail that two months period to travel abroad.

He further submits that the daughter of the petitioner is expecting a baby in the last week of February of next year, so in case she may be allowed to go abroad for two months, however the period may be extended from 15.01.2024 to 15.03.2024, on the same terms and conditions.

3. In view of the above submissions the impugned order as challenged before this Court is affirmed however, it is modified to the extent that the petitioner is allowed to travel abroad for a period of two months from 15.01.2024 to 15.03.2024 on the same terms and conditions which was imposed vide the impugned order (supra) by the learned trial Court.

4. It is further made clear that in case the the petitioner fails to honour the conditions as imposed by learned trial Court, the security amount of Rs.5.00 lakhs, which is required to be deposited by the petitioner shall be released in favour of the complainant.

5. Disposed of.
