DEEPAK GUPTA, J. (Oral)

Cheque in question is dated 12.06.2017. Petitioner, who is accused of the case wants to settle the matter by paying only the cheque amount. Application moved by the petitioner has been declined by the Court of learned Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Gurugram vide impugned order dated 10.11.2022 against which this petition has been filed.

Learned counsel for the respondent No.2- complainant has opposed the petition by submitting that he is not ready to accept the cheque amount only. Learned counsel has also opposed the prayer for sending the matter to mediation. Compounding is permissible in such like matters but with the consent of both the parties.

After passing of six years from the date of issuance of cheque, petitioner simply wants to pay the cheque amount.

In view of the above, I do not find any merit in the present petition and the same is dismissed.
