ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

1. The correctness of the concurrent findings of fact arrived at by the Courts below is challenged in this second appeal by the plaintiff. His suit for grant of decree of mandatory injunction directing the respondents to pay the amount of compensation for the business brought in by him, has been dismissed.
2. The plaintiff joined the respondent's business rival namely Kotak Life Insurance Company as Sales Manager without seeking permission of the Life Insurance Corporation of India. Ultimately, the Agency of the appellant was terminated. Both the Courts have found that as per Rules, the appellant cannot work simultaneously for different Insurance Companies.
