

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

(230)

CWP No. 40295 of 2018
Date of Decision : 10.10.2023

Smt. Bhateri Devi

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. S.K. Tripathi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Harish Rathee, Sr. Deputy Advocate General, Haryana.

Harsimran Singh Sethi J. (Oral)

In the present petition, the grievance of the petitioner is that employees, who were juniors to the petitioner, were regularized from a date prior to the date when the service of the petitioner was regularized, hence, the petitioner is also entitled for regularization of her services from the date employees juniors to her were regularized.

While filing the reply to the said contention, in paragraph 9 of the written statement, it has been mentioned that services of some of the similarly situated employees were inadvertently, regularized under the Policy of the year 1998/1999 or 2003 but those very regularization orders have already been reconsidered and the inadvertent mistake of regularizing the services of juniors of the petitioner from an earlier date have already been withdrawn.

There is no replication to the written statement filed on behalf of the respondents.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record with their able assistance.

Keeping in view the fact that the grievance of the petitioner that her juniors were regularized from a date prior to that of the petitioner has already been undone by the respondents as per the fact mentioned in the reply filed and the services of the petitioner had already been regularized in the year 2015, hence no ground is made out for any interference by this Court in the present petition.

However, in case any of the junior of the petitioner still has been regularized from a date prior to the date when the services of the petitioner has been regularized, the petitioner will be free to approach the respondents for the redressal of her grievance.

Disposed of.
