TA-1432-2023 (O&M)
Decided on : 03.11.2023

Sarabjit Kaur

. . . Applicant/Petitioner

Versus

Happy Singh

. . . Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY VASHISTH

PRESENT: Mr. Amardeep Singh Mann, Advocate for the petitioner.

SANJAY VASHISTH, J. (Oral)

1. Present transfer application has been filed by the petitioner – wife, under Section 24 of CPC, for seeking transfer of the petition bearing No. HMA/725/2023, filed by the respondent - husband under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (for brevity, ‘HMA’), titled as “Happy Singh v. Sarabjit Kaur” pending in the Court of Addl. Principal Judge, Family Court, Bathinda to any Court of competent jurisdiction at Mansa.

2. The present transfer petition has been filed, inter alia, on the following grounds:-

- i) That the petitioner-wife and respondent-husband got married on 04.09.2022, at Mansa, according to the Hindu rites and ceremonies.
- ii) That out of the said wedlock, one daughter, now aged about three months, was born, who is minor and staying/residing with the petitioner-wife.
- iii) That the petitioner-wife is 10+2 pass and is not earning anything, while the respondent-husband is doing private job in the Water Works in Cantonment area.
- iv) That traveling from Bathinda to Mansa, is a distance of around

60 kms (one side), which takes around 2-2:30 hours, thus, causing extreme hardships to the petitioner-wife as well as the minor child.

- v) That the petitioner-wife is financially dependent on her widow mother, as her father had expired during the pandemic COVID-19 period, and lacks convenient transportation options, thus, is compelled to rely on public transit, resulting in significant hardships.
- vi) That the financial conditions of the parental home of the petitioner-wife is also not sound, and her parental family lives in a hand to mouth condition.

3. I have heard learned Counsel for the petitioner.

In the facts and circumstances similar to the present case, in paragraph Nos. 9 & 10 of the judgment rendered in the case of N.C.V. Aishwarya v. A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha, AIR 2022 SC 4318, Hon'ble the Apex Court has held as under:

“9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

4. Further, Hon’ble the Apex Court in Rajani Kishor Pradeshi vs Kishor Babulal Pardeshi, (2005) 12 SCC 237, has observed that “while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

5. However, to avoid any misuse of the lenient view by the female litigants, Hon’ble the Apex Court in Anindita Das vs. Srijit Das, (2006) 9 SCC 197, has also cautioned that the Courts should ensure that such leniency given to the female litigants should not be misused. Relevant Paragraph 3 of the aforesaid judgment says as under:

“3. Even otherwise, it must be seen that at one stage this Court was showing leniency to ladies. But since then it has been found that a large number of transfer petitions are filed by women taking advantage of the leniency taken by this Court. On an average at least 10 to 15 transfer petitions are on Board of each Court on each admission day. It is, therefore, clear that leniency of this Court is being misused by the women.”

6. Thus, this Court is of the view that while adjudicating a transfer petition initiated by the wife in the context of a matrimonial dispute, the Court must take into account a comprehensive array of the following factors:-

- (a) Economic condition and earning capacity of the parties i.e. husband and wife;
- (b) Social standing of the wife and her dependency on her parents;
- (c) Custody of any minor children involved;
- (d) Education of the children, if any;
- (e) Physical well-being of both, i.e. wife and husband;
- (f) Pending litigation(s) between the parties including criminal cases, if any;
- (h) Accessibility of the location from where the wife resides to the court where the case is pending;
- (i) Availability of convenient commuting options

Undoubtedly, only a harmonious consideration of all these vital aspects would ensure a just and equitable decision in such cases.

7. This court is of the opinion that, for the purpose of deciding the transfer petition, it is not necessary to issue notice to the respondent-husband. Otherwise, both the parties would be burdened with litigation costs and transportation expenses, which shall be taxing for both the sides.

8. Thus, applying the principles of law, laid down by Hon'ble the Apex Court in N.C.V Aishwarya's case (supra), Rajani Kishor's case (supra) and Anindita Das's case (supra), this Court deems it appropriate to allow the present petition subject to the following conditions:

- (i) The petition filed by respondent - husband under Section 13 of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, bearing No. HMA/725/2023 titled as "Happy Singh v. Sarabjit Kaur", pending in the Court of Addl. Principal Judge, Family Court, Bathinda is transferred to a Court of competent jurisdiction at Mansa.
- (ii) The Ld. District Judge, Bathinda is directed to transfer complete record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Mansa, by directing both the sides to appear before the Court of Ld. District Judge, Mansa, on a particular date for further proceedings.

- (iii) The District Judge, Mansa will assign the said petition to the Court of competent jurisdiction.

9. The concerned Court at Mansa shall diligently strive to amicably resolve the marital discord between the parties by referring the matter to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre.

10. The Court, where the matter is to be assigned after transfer will accommodate the parties to the lis with at least, one day in a calendar month.

11. However, liberty is granted to the respondent-husband to revive the petition, if so advised, to contest the same, provided that:

- (I) If the petitioner-wife has concealed any material fact or aspect while filing the current transfer application, with a purpose to mislead the Court for seeking transfer of the case.

OR

- (ii) If the respondent husband is suffering from any substantial physical or mental disability or ailment.

OR

- (iii) The respondent will clear all arrears of maintenance amount, if any, in terms of a petition filed by the petitioner either under Section 125 Cr.P.C. or Section 12 of the Domestic Violence Act or Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act, or under any other law.

AND

- (iv) The respondent will file an affidavit giving undertaking to pay Rs.1,000/- per day, to the petitioner for attending the Court proceedings at Bathinda, on each and every date of hearing.

AND

- (v) The respondent will bring a demand draft of Rs.25,000/- towards the litigation expenses of the petitioner to pursue the case at Bathinda in case the respondent opts to contest this petition.

12. As already noticed above, since the petition is being disposed of without issuing notice to the respondent, accordingly, in these peculiar circumstances, in order to ensure appearance of the parties before the District Judge, Mansa, as per the direction of District Judge, Bathinda; it is also directed that a copy of this order be sent to the respondent through registered post, besides sending a copy of this order to the District Judges concerned through email. Petitioner through her counsel, present in the Court, is also directed to ensure her appearance accordingly.

Petition stands disposed of in above terms.

Pending misc. application(s), if any, also stands disposed of.
