Learned counsel inter alia contends that the petitioner who is a lady Panch, aged 29 years has been performing her duties diligently and honestly and she along with others had filed a complaint against the deceased before the BDPO which is pending with regard to embezzlement of the funds at the hands of the deceased who was the Sarpanch, dated 10.09.2021, Annexure P-7 and 25.05.2021, Annexure P-2. He was to appear before the Panchayat Secretary along with record on 23.09.2022, which he was avoiding. Thereafter, the BDPO had called the meeting of the entire Panchayat members on 02.11.2022, 09.11.2022 and 16.11.2022 to discuss about the development and to complete the coram, however Dharmapal (since deceased) had not appeared. He submits that there has been no instigation at the hands of the petitioner, even as per the alleged suicide note which has general allegations with no specific date or time, thus ingredients of the alleged offence are not made out. The petitioner is not involved in any other criminal case and she is being victimized as she along with others had highlighted the embazzlement of funds at his hands. He further submits that in case the investigating agency requires the petitioner to appear, he shall make himself available without demur.

Learned State counsel on instructions from ASI Avtar Chand affirms the factum of joining the investigation by the petitioner and cooperating with the investigation agency. He also submits that at this stage, the petitioner is not required for further custodial interrogation.

In view of the above and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, anticipatory bail petition filed by the petitioner is allowed and the order dated 12.12.2022 granting interim bail to him, is hereby made absolute, subject to compliance of conditions as specified under Section 438(2) Cr. P.C

However, it is made clear that if the petitioner fails to join and cooperate with the investigation agency as and when required, the State would be at liberty to move an application for cancellation of the present anticipatory bail granted to him.
