JASGURPREET SINGH PURI, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that in the present case, there is a two-fold prayer. Firstly for quashing order dated 02.01.2019 (Annexure P-6), whereby the petitioner has been declared a proclaimed person and secondly for quashing FIR No.531 dated 01.07.2016, under Sections 406, 420 and 120-B of the IPC, registered at Police Station Civil Line Rohtak, District Rohtak, Haryana based on merits. He further submitted that so far as the second prayer for quashing of aforesaid FIR on merits is concerned, since the trial is already going on therefore he does not wish to press the present prayer.

He further submitted that so far as the first prayer pertaining to quashing order dated 02.01.2019 (Annexure P-6), whereby the petitioner has been declared a proclaimed person is concerned, this Court had directed the petitioner to surrender before the learned trial Court and in case he surrenders, then he will be admitted to interim bail and in pursuance thereof he has already surrendered before the learned trial Court and he has been admitted to interim bail vide order dated 21.12.2019 and therefore the first prayer of the petitioner has become infructuous because the petitioner has already surrendered.

In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of.

The interim bail granted to the petitioner shall remain confirmed.
