ARUN PALLI, J (Oral)

Petitioner herein has prayed for the following substantive relief:

“Civil Writ Petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India with a prayer for issuance of a writ, order or direction especially a writ in the nature of Mandamus directing the respondents to allow the present petitioner to participate in the allotment process of industrial plot under Oustee Quota Scheme (R & R Policy-2010 dated 09.11.2010 (Annexure P-1) in the acquired land under Haryana Government Notification No.2/1/4-IIB-II-2010 dated 01.04.2010 u/s 4 and notification no. 2/1/4-IIB-II-2010 dated 04.04.2011 u/s 6 of Land Acquisition Act, in the interest of justice;

To issue a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to consider the application dated 20.07.2023 (Annexure P-3) and application form dated 28.09.2023 (Annexure P-4) for participating in the allotment process of industrial plot.”

Upon being served with an advance copy of the petition, Mr. Ankur Mittal, Advocate, for respondents is present in Court. He, as always, very fairly submits that let this petition be disposed of, to enable the respondent authorities to consider the concerns/grievances of the petitioner in the right earnest and pass necessary orders in accordance with law within eight weeks from today. He further submits that before any such orders are passed, the petitioners shall also be afforded an opportunity of hearing.

Learned counsel for petitioners is agreeable to the course suggested by the learned counsel for respondents and submits that let this petition be disposed of in view of the statement made by him.

In the wake of the position sketched out above, this petition is accordingly disposed of in terms of the statement made by learned counsel for the parties.

This Court is sanguine that the authorities shall consider/examine the matter in issue, and pass appropriate orders, in accordance with law, within the time indicated by learned counsel for the respondents, assigning reasons in support thereof.

Needless to assert, this order shall not constitute an expression of opinion on the merits of the case of either party, for, as indicated earlier, the competent authority shall examine the grievances of the petitioner, strictly in accordance with law.
