Veerpal		Petitioner
	Versus
State of Punjab		Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KULDEEP TIWARI

Present : Mr. Amandeep Singh Samra, Advocate, for the petitioner

KULDEEP TIWARI,J. (ORAL)

1. The instant petition has been filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C., for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No. 428 dated 08.09.2023, under Sections 22, 29, 61/85 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 registered at Police Station City, Barnala.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner by placing reliance upon FIR No. 90 dated 25.02.2021, submits that earlier also the petitioner was involved in the same kind of offence with a similar story and she was enlarged on regular bail by this Court vide order dated 13.10.2021, decided in CRM-M-24012-2021. Now again the police has made up similar story and has again falsely implicated her because of the reason that she has refused to give money to the police officials.
3. Earlier the petitioner was extended the relief of regular bail on a condition that she will not get involved in any other similar nature case.
4. A perusal of the present FIR reveals that she had sold 1010 loose tablets to the main accused, who was arrested from the spot.

5. Considering the fact that the petitioner is involved for the second time, despite conditional regular bail having been granted by this Court, and she violated the terms and conditions of the bail order, this Court is not inclined to grant the extraordinary relief of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. In sequel, the present petition for anticipatory is, hereby, dismissed.
