IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARHCRM-M-51395-2019 (O&M)*Date of decision: 28.07.2023

Gurwinder Singh

....Petitioner

versus

State of Punjab

....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN MONGAPresent:- Mr.K.S.Rathour, Advocate for petitioner.

Mr.Mohit Thakur, AAG, Punjab

ARUN MONGA, J. (ORAL)

Petition herein is for quashing of order dated 01.10.2019 (Annexure P-3), whereby learned trial Court, has cancelled the bail of petitioner and bail bonds were forfeited to the State in the proceedings arising out of FIR No.27 dated 30.01.2016, registered under Section 419, 420, 465, 467, 468, 471, 474, 120-B of IPC, 1860 at Police Station, City Kharar and non-bailable warrants were issued against him.

2 Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that petitioner was admitted on bail by this Court vide order dated 20.11.2018 (Annexure P-2). He further submits that petitioner was facing trial regularly and attending the court proceedings on each and every date. However, on 01.10.2019, petitioner and his counsel could not appear before learned trial Court as he was admitted at GMCH, Sector-16, Chandigarh due to injury and was advised bed rest for 5 weeks. His bail was cancelled and non-bailable warrants were ordered to be issued vide impugned order herein. Hence, the instant petition.

3. Learned counsel for petitioner states that absence of petitioner was not deliberate but was due to sheer inadvertence. The default in appearance was due to circumstances beyond control and not at all intentional. He submits that non-appearance was neither willful nor intentional as he was regularly attending the trial. However, without issuing any prior notice to petitioner, learned trial Court erroneously cancelled the bail of petitioner without giving an opportunity of being heard and then issued non-bailable warrants. Resultantly, impugned order is unsustainable in law.

4. On the other hand, learned State counsel submits that learned trial Court rightly cancelled the bail of petitioner since he deliberately chose not to appear on the date fixed and violated the terms of bail bonds.

5. Arguments heard.

6. On 13.02.2019, while issuing notice of motion in this case, my learned brother Mahabir Singh Sindhu, J., (as he then was seized of the matter), passed the following order:

*“Contends that on account of ill-health of the petitioner, he could not appear before learned trial Court on 01.10.2019 and that led to the issuance of non-bailable warrants as well as cancellation of his bail bonds and surety bonds. Further contends that petitioner is ready to join the proceedings before learned trial Court.
Notice of motion for 05.02.2020.
In the meanwhile, the petitioner is directed to surrender before learned trial Court. On his doing so, he shall be released on interim bail in the present case till the next date of hearing subject to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.”*

7. Apropos order dated 13.12.2019, the petitioner surrendered before learned trial Court and was admitted to interim bail subject to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

8. After passing of aforesaid order by this Court, petitioner has been appearing before learned trial Court regularly. In the premise, order dated 13.12.2019 ibid is made absolute. As a natural corollary, the impugned order dated 01.10.2019 (Annexure P-3), whereby bail of petitioner was cancelled and non-bailable warrants were ordered to be issued, are rendered otiose. No further orders are required to be passed by this Court.

9. Disposed of, accordingly.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
