ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The petitioners are challenging the additional charge assigned to them by the competent authority. They allege that while having been posted against a sanctioned post, they are being required to perform additional duties at different locations.

Sh. Charanpreet Singh, Assistant Advocate General, Punjab, submits that efforts are being made to ensure that the petitioners shall not be forced to discharge their public duties at two different places, at the same time.

With these observations, the writ petition is disposed of.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
