ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The petitioner is challenging the additional charge assigned to him by the competent authority. He alleges that while having been posted against a sanctioned post, he is being required to perform the additional duty at a different location.

Sh. Charanpreet Singh, Assistant Advocate General, Punjab, submits that the efforts are being made to ensure that the petitioner shall not be forced to discharge his public duty at two different places, at the same time.

With these observations, the writ petition is disposed of.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
