Decided on:-04.05.2023

Pardeep Kumar

....Petitioner..

VS.

State of Haryana

....Respondent.

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARKESH MANUJA

Present: Ms. Himani Anand, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Gaurav Bansal, DAG, Haryana.

HARKESH MANUJA J.

1. By way of present petition filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C, prayer has been made for grant of regular bail pending trial in case FIR No.951 dated 07.11.2022, under Sections 15, 18, 27 and 27-A of the NDPS Act, 1985, registered at Police Station Shahabad District Kurukshetra.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was implicated in the present case only on the basis of disclosure statement made by co-accused Harminder Singh and Kuldeep Singh, who were arrested at the spot and from whom 15 kg of poppy straw and 6 kg 500 gm of opium was recovered.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner is in custody for the last almost 6 months, the investigation in the present case already stands concluded and the trial is likely to take some time. She also submits that there is no other case of NDPS registered against the petitioner and no recovery has been effected from him.

4. On the other hand learned State counsel opposes the prayer made on behalf of the petitioner while submitting that huge quantity of contraband was recovered from the co-accused of the petitioner.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and gone through the paper-book. I find substance in submissions made on behalf of the petitioner.

6. Considering the fact that the investigation in the present case already stands concluded and as per learned State counsel, challan is going to be filed today before the court and trial is likely to take some time, there does not appear to be any justification to extend the incarceration of the petitioner any further, who is behind the bars for the last approximately 6 months, besides it, no other case under NDPS is registered against the petitioner and no recovery has been effected from him.

7. In view of the above, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, subject to his furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
