IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

235

CRM-M-54801-2019
Date of Decision: 27.04.2023

Ranjit Kaur	Versus	Petitioner
State of Punjab and others		Respondents

CORAM:HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANOOP CHITKARA

Present: Mr. Manbir Singh Basra, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Virat Rana, AAG, Punjab.

ANOOP CHITKARA, J.

Seeking fair and impartial investigation, the petitioner had come up before this Court.

State counsel on instructions submits that the investigation is complete and even the charges have been framed which shows that the trial Court are prima facie satisfied with the investigation and the offence attributed to the accused.

Given above, the present petition is disposed of as having rendered infructuous. It is clarified that in case the petitioner has any grievance that all the suspects are not arraigned as party, it shall be permissible for her to file application under Section 319 CrPC before the concerned Court.

Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
