Present : Mr. Raghav Sharma, Advocate

SURESHWAR THAKUR, J.(ORAL)

1. The petitioners are aggrieved from an adversarial decision being made upon their claim, by the competent authority. The said adversarial decision is enclosed in Annexure P-14.

2. Be that as it may, since an alternative as well as an efficacious remedy is yet amenable for being recoured, by the petitioners, to challenge the validity of drawing of Annexure P-14, thus in the face of the above, the institution of the instant writ petition, is an ill endeavour for the relevant purpose.

3. Thus, the instant writ petition is dismissed, as being completely mis-constituted, however, leaving liberty to the petitioner to make an appeal against Annexure P-14, before the competent appellate authority concerned.

On preferment of the said appeal, the competent appellate authority concerned, may on an application appended therewith, and, cast under Section 14 of the Limitation Act, make a lawful order hence condoning the relevant delay, so as to make the availment of the said remedy of appeal, to be an efficacious remedy, besides, to ensure that justice is done to the present petitioner. The said appeal shall be decided after hearing all affected persons concerned, but, within a period of three months of its preferment.
