1. Present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of necessary direction to respondents No.1 to 4 to protect the life, liberty and property of the petitioner, which is endangered at the hands of respondents No.5 to 11 and their other relatives, as they are forcing the petitioner to live with her husband i.e. respondent No.5, who is a drug addict and cannot perform matrimonial obligations and used to beat her mercilessly and now petitioner does not want to continue her life with respondent No.5.
2. Prima facie, it appears to be a matrimonial dispute; therefore, this court is not inclined to entertain the present petition, at this stage.

3. Faced with the above situation, learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, wishes to withdraw the present petition with liberty to take recourse to the remedy available under law.
4. Ordered accordingly.
5. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
